Changes to our timetable

Following discussions with Government and the wider rail industry, Great Western Railway is reducing services to reflect national advice against non-essential travel, while maintaining services critical to keeping key workers moving during the current situation.

The changes prioritise key routes essential for those people continuing to deliver vital services as the UK responds to the current situation.

Individual journeys can be checked on

Summary of services

This is a list of trains that GWR are intending to operate in the week of 30 March to 03 April, 2020. Services may change at short notice, and you are strongly advised to check your journey before you travel at

GWR.com/Check

Please note that:

- * Only GWR Trains are included in this document
- * Other operators may also be running trains on all or parts of these routes. Please check their respective websites for details
- * Trains will operate in both directions, but are only listed in one direction in the summary
- * They will run on all days of the week, except when noted
- * Unfortunately we are not able to serve certain routes and locations. Please check with other operators for details of services to eg: Hereford, Banbury, Carmarthen, Gatwick Airport and Brighton
- * Not all stations are shown, and trains will call at all usual stops.

For full details, please check your journey at GWR.com/Check

Changes since last week

This is version 1 for this week, produced 26 March at 2230. The following changes have been made since last week:

- * Although general frequency remains the same, many services run at different times to last week. Check carefully before you travel
- * Planned engineering work between Exeter and Barnstaple mean that those services are replaced by buses. This is subject to change.
- * The line between Salisbury and Romsey has been re-opened, and trains now run through to Portsmouth Harbour again
- * The line between Castle Cary and Taunton has been re-opened, and trains now run hourly between London and Plymouth via the regular route again
- * Fewer trains call at Appleford and Culham
- * Most London to Worcester trains will terminate at Shrub Hill
- * Taunton to Cardiff Central trains will terminate at Bristol Temple Meads
- * Bristol Temple Meads to Great Malvern trains will terminate at Gloucester
- * Westbury to Weymouth service is reduced to 3 trains a day
- * Many smaller changes are not listed here, so if you need to travel, please check your journey carefully at GWR.com/Check

All tickets will be valid for use on all operator's services on that route.

In addition, the following GWR managed stations are not planned to be served during this week.

Route	Nearest open station
Heyford and Tackley	Oxford
Combe	Hanborough
Finstock, Ascott-under-Wychwood and Shipton	Charlbury
Dilton Marsh	Westbury

Also, Ashchurch for Tewkesbury will not be served by GWR, but some CrossCountry services will still call.
